

2013 first place winner

Nicole Levine

I Hope That You'll Say No

Lyrics:

He was a kid I knew
He was that boy next door that I always liked to talk to
We played soccer in his backyard
Till his mama said no more
But he couldn't say no more
Who knew?
Who knew?
This is what it'd come to

I love someone
Who threw his life away
Covered in smoke
Look where he's at today
He used to make me proud
But now he's six feet underground
If only he said no
I hope that you'll say no

Sometimes I need to hear his voice
I just wish he could've made a better choice
But red eyes lose sight
In the dead of night
Who knew?
Who knew?
This is what it'd come to

I loved someone
Who threw his life away
Covered in smoke
Look where he's at today
He use to make his mama proud
But now he's six feet underground
If only he said no
I hope that you'll say no