

“Hold Me Father”
By: Adam O’Brien

Cause my arms are scarred, just like your hands
Sin came a both of us, but you’re the stronger man
See I’ve been to hell and back, got the scars to prove it
To keep my soul I’m gonna have to lose it
Cause I need a Savior, Holy Spirit, hold me Father in your hand
Cause I need a Savior, Holy Spirit, hold me Father in your hand
See I’ve pissed too many years of my life away thank God I’ve got a helping hand to forgive all my mistakes
Cause he was hung and beaten on the hill of Calvary, you lock the door to Heaven, salvation is right in front of me
Cause I need a Savior, Holy Spirit, hold me Father in your hand
I said I need a savior, Holy Spirit, hold me Father in your hand
