

Life Is A Gift

Written at Emerson House

Life is a gift
Don't forget who you are
You don't feel worthy but you've come so far

Don't give up, don't give in
You are not your addiction, you are not your sin
Life is a gift

Some times I give up
Its easier to give in
I don't feel like I'm worthy
It feels wrong to win

It's hard to stay
so much damage has been done
But I look to those who fought and won
Life is a gift

Life is a gift
Don't forget who you are
You don't feel worthy but you've come so far

Don't give up, don't give in
You are not your addiction, you are not your sin

When I need hope and inspiration
I think of my children the next generation
I need to be there, I need to be string
Even tough it hurts and it takes so long
Life is a gift

Life is a gift
Don't forget who you are
You don't feel worthy but you've come so far

Don't give up, don't give in
You are not your addiction, you are not your sin
Life is a gift